

Street soccer competition

Archival News | New Straits Times | 21/07/2000

KUALA LUMPUR, Thurs. - Nothing to do this weekend? Catch some street soccer action when the Datuk Shahrizat Abdul Jalil Challenge Trophy goes up for grabs at the Bandaraya Street Soccer 2000.

Organised by the SMK Bukit Bandaraya Football Club and the Lembah Pantai MP service centre, the matches will be held at SMK Bukit Bandaraya on Saturday and Sunday.

There are three categories - under-13, under-15 and under-17. Each team must have a minimum of four players or a maximum of five.

Cash prizes are also offered. Players in the second, third and fourth places will take home consolation trophies and cash prizes.

(END) Source : New Straits Times